

Our Presenters

Tammy Saltzman –

After 15 years in sales and marketing and a law degree, Tammy decided to reinvent herself and began a consulting company and her professional speaking career. Tammy compiled all the knowledge she has mastered over her career and developed workshops and seminars designed to motivate others, encouraging them to harness their own inner abilities and have the life of their dreams.

Eileen “Eileah” Williams –

Eileen is a Certified Kripalu Holistic Educator. She has practiced and taught Yoga for 40 years. She discovered this science of health and well-being when her doctors told her she would never stand straight if she didn't have surgery. She chose yoga instead and feels more youthful, fit and vital than ever.

Luciana Dugan –

Luciana holds an inter-disciplinary Masters of Arts Degree including an internship at the Metropolitan Museum of Art. She has studied at Parsons School of Design and facilitates art and prayer retreats and painting workshops at Cenacles in France and Italy.

Carol O’Neil –

Carol has over 20 years working in the financial services industry. Carol’s motivation is empowering people to make the most intelligent choices with their money, fulfill their aspirations and see them experience genuine happiness and security in their lives.

Kathleen Iannucci –

Kathleen is an Acupuncture Physician, Licensed Massage Therapist, Certified Hypnotist, Reiki Master and Professional Educator. She practices Integrative Medicine and living a joyful life in service.

Deborah DeNicola –

Deborah is the author of several books including a spiritual memoir called “The Future That Brought Her Here; Memoir of a Call to Awaken.” She teaches dream imaging workshops in South Florida and worked as a book reviewer for the Sun Sentinel.

Sara Dochterman –

Sara is a certified Labyrinth Facilitator as well as a licensed Clinical Social Worker and Psychotherapist in private practice. She considers it an honor and her spiritual path to share the labyrinth with others.